

Introduction to Web Design- Crossword 1

Across

1. A list of websites that have been visited recently.
4. a specialized website that allows you to search through the billions of websites on the World Wide Web to find exactly what you want.
9. A single document (which can include images, videos, charts, etc.) viewable through a web browser
11. the information that is found on the Internet
12. a web page's unique address on the World Wide Web that tells the browser exactly where to find the web pages web" which emphasize machine-facilitate understanding of information which will provide a more productive and intuitive user experience.
14. a computer on a network that runs specialized software and stores information in order to "serve" it to the other networked computers

15. a programming language used for creating web pages

16. Specially formatted documents that can contain links, images, and other media. Readable by web browsers

17. Text or images on a webpage where users can click to travel to another web destination. The mouse pointer turns into a hand when you hover over a link.

18. two or more connected computers that share resources in a certain location

Down

2. A vast computer network linking smaller computer networks worldwide

3. two or more computers or LANS located apart from each other that are connected together for the purposes of sharing information

5. visual communication combinin images, words, and ideas to convey information to an audience.

6. A list of websites where the search words are found

7. allows user to navigate by clicking with a mouse instead of typing

8. a set of computers which are connected to each other and operate as part of the same system, able to exchange information and messages

10. a collection of webpages

13. A small program that can be downloaded which allows users to enhance their browser; this allows extra activities of the web for example, the Quicktime plug-in allows visitors to watch movies and Shocwave plug-in allows users to play games.