

Name: _____

Date: _____

speaking crossword

Across

1. the means by which a message is communicated
4. vibration of sound waves on the eardrum
8. first ten amendments
11. what type of plagiarism is stealing ideas from two or three works?
13. presenting another persons language
14. paying close attention to
16. belief that ones own group is superior

17. time and place in which speech communication occurs
 18. the messages sent from a listener to a speaker
 19. branch of philosophy that deals with issues
 20. the person who receives the speakers message
- ## Down
2. what type of listening is to evaluate a message for purposes of accepting?
 3. an outline that briefly notes a speakers main points
 5. anxiety when giving a speech

6. what type of plagiarism is stealing a speech entirely from a single person?
7. the use of language to defame, demean, or degrade individuals
9. what type of listening is to provide emotional support?
10. the person who is presenting an oral message
12. hormone released into the bloodstream when giving a speech
15. whatever a speaker communicates to someone else