

Food Webs

Across

4. An example of a decomposer that is a fungus.
13. A smaller carnivore in the ocean with flippers and whiskers.
15. A producer which herbivores graze on
16. A decomposer (insect, fungus, or bacteria) breaks down animals or plants that are not live, but _____.
17. A predator that hunts at night on silent wings.
20. an animal that feeds on dead plant material.
21. The tallest herbivore on Earth.
22. A omnivore in the bear family (2 words).

Down

1. Photosynthesis - plants make their own food using _____, water and carbon dioxide.
2. An animal that is chased and eaten by another animal.
3. A carnivore in the dog family (2 words).
5. The smallest carnivore on Earth.
6. An animal that chases down and eats another animal.
7. A producer that makes its own food through photosynthesis.
8. A carnivore in the bear family (2 words).
9. A striped carnivore in the cat family.
10. The biggest herbivore on Earth.
11. A map of who eat whom in an ecosystem is called a food _____.
12. A consumer is an _____ that eats what is in its ecosystem.
14. A herbivore is an animal that eats only _____.
18. A carnivore is an animal that eats only _____.
19. A large hooved, herbivore with antlers.