

Name: _____

Date: _____

Industry and Immigration

Across

6. any type of permanent property, land, houses, rents, an office, or a franchise, that may be held of another

9. a fiduciary relationship where one person holds the title to property for the benefit of another

10. system of social organization that advocates the right of the ownership and control of the means of production and distribution

11. an organization of wage earners or salaried employees for mutual aid and protection and for dealing collectively with employers

12. exclusive control of a commodity or service in a particular market

13. to leave ones country or region for another and settle

14. tax placed on imported goods in the hopes of it becoming more popular in the U.S.

15. the idea of survival of the fittest and applying it to the society

16. to come to a country of which one is not a native, usually for permanent residence.

Down

1. Whatever realm your in you would buy out your competition

2. an economic and political belief holding that a capitalist economy can regulate itself in a freely competitive market through the relationship of supply and demand with a minimum of governmental interference

3. buying different types of companies so the can make parts of your product for you

4. a process of producing steel

5. a person who organizes and manages any enterprise, especially a business

7. to take in and incorporate like its your own

8. considerable amount of the labor force in a city, region, or country participates.