

Name: _____

Date: _____

Surgical Technology

Across

1. Extension of a joint beyond its normal anatomical range
4. The surgical removal of a limb.
7. Endoscopic surgery of a joint
10. Association of Surgical Technologists
15. To place a loop or tie around a blood vessel or duct
17. This surgical specialty deals with the skeletal bones of the body.
19. position used for exposure to the perineum for gynecological and urological procedures
20. Role and name commonly applied to the surgical technologist or licensed nurse in the sterile scrub role during surgery.

Down

2. A surgical clamp most often used to occlude a blood vessel.
3. A process by which all microorganisms, including bacterial spores, are destroyed
5. In minimally invasive surgery, inflation of the abdominal or thoracic cavity with carbon dioxide gas.
6. The position in which a prone or supine patient is tilted with the head down.
8. Core values that are based on knowledge of right and wrong—not based on culture, religion, or time. Ethics are universal.

9. This is the provider who performs the case

11. Time set aside before the start of surgery to allow implementation of Universal Protocol.
12. Scar formation of the abdominal viscera
13. This person is the RN of the operating room
14. The _____ tells you if an item has met the sterility needs
16. Certified surgical technologist
18. In robotic surgery, the process of positioning the robotic arms in the exact location over the patient

Word Bank

indicator	Arthroscopy	scrub	hyperextension	adhesion
surgeon	docking	insufflation	hemostat	timeout
trendelenburg	sterilization	cst	lithotomy	ast
orthopedic	amputation	circulator	ligate	ethics