

Name: _____

Date: _____

So Week 4

Across

2. to bring into existence; to be the cause of
 3. a being that must eventually die; (adj.) of or relating to such a being; causing death, fatal; possible, conceivable
 6. an enthusiastic public welcome, an outburst of applause
 9. to worship as an idol, make an idol of; to love very much
 10. a sorry condition or state; (v.) to pledge, promise solemnly

11. difficult to catch or to hold; hard to explain or understand
 13. to think, believe; to consider, have an opinion
 14. something kept in memory of the giver; a souvenir
 15. unimportant, trivial; narrow-minded; secondary in rank, minor

Down

1. to destroy, lay waste, leave in ruins
 4. a daydream; the condition of being lost in thought

5. a lack of thankfulness
 7. to throw doubt upon, cause to be distrusted; to damage in reputation; (n.) a loss or lack of belief, confidence, or reputation
 8. to declare not guilty, free from blame, discharge completely; to conduct or behave oneself
 12. to feel sorry for what one has done or has failed to do