

Name: _____

Date: _____

Revolutionary War Puzzle

Across

4. This was a series of acts passed in the beginning of 1767. It was passed by the Parliament of Great Britain relating to the British colonies in North America.

5. This was a pamphlet written by Thomas Paine. It gave the Thirteen Colonies independence from Great Britain.

8. All people are created equal. All people deserve the same rights and opportunities.

9. In 1783, an agreement was made between the US and Great Britain. It ended the Revolutionary War and recognized American independence.

15. This is a military government involving the ending of ordinary law.

16. This was put in place to help the British East India Company. It allowed them to ship their tea to North America.

17. This person was born in Massachusettes in 1723. He is known for being the first death of the Boston Massacre.

18. This woman fought in the battle of Monmouth. Many think her story is folklore.

Down

1. This is a group of men were self trained in weaponry and tactics. They joined together to form militia during the war.

2. This group of people were against the British. They wanted to gain their independence from Britain.

3. These laws were passed after the Boston Tea Party. They were a punishment for the colonists who threw tea into the Boston Harbor.

6. These people stayed loyal to the British crown. They were against the Revolution.

7. George Washington's army spent their winter months at this camp. Many died here from starvation and disease, but they left stronger.

10. This was a group of colonists who secretly formed a group. They wanted to protect the rights of the colonists.

11. This act, passed in 1756, let British parliament to collect money from colonists. They put a tax on newspapers and commercial documents.

12. This man had many talents such as engraver and silversmith. He is best known for letting militia know that the British troops were coming.

13. This person was a polish commander who fought in the American Revolution. We celebrate him the first Monday in March.

14. This was the first battle of the Revolutionary War. Although the colonials lost, they did great and their confidence was lifted.