

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocab 3F

Across

2. (v.) to make amends, make up for; to avert

5. The spy used charm and flattery in order to _____ the information from the diplomat.

6. I _____ cruelty yet do not always notice when I have said something cruel without meaning to.

7. Our military is prepared to deal with external aggression, but our best defense against _____ at home is the loyalty of the American people.

10. _____ was such a common offense among Roman provincial governors that, when asked how they made their fortunes, most simply replied, "in the provinces."

12. They are conscientious objectors to military service because they are _____ by a deep religious conviction not to take a human life.

13. withering, acerbic, mordant

15. I followed a _____ path through the woods, not because I feared pursuit, but because I was lost.

16. cagey, uninformative, playing it safe, playing it close to the vest

17. (n.) a natural or habitual inclination or tendency (especially of human character or behavior).

18. (adj.) resulting from chance rather than from an inherent cause or character; accidental, not essential.

Down

1. The pleasant background music did not _____ my work but instead, distracted me.

3. poise, self-assurance, equanimity

4. commotion, turmoil, unrest

8. An experienced politician always tries to avoid making _____ remarks that may offend some voters.

9. My grasp of trigonometry was _____ until I attended the extra-help sessions.

11. (adj.) existing in name only, not real; too small to be considered or taken seriously.

14. impute, credit, attribute