

A mixed bag of antiques & collectibles

Across

2. Manufacturer of cast iron toys, bookends and doorstops that is often reproduced.
 3. Items that contain at least .925 silver are known as this. (2 words)
 6. Translucent glass with the tones of the opal gemstone.
 8. As a rule, items need to be at least 100 years old to be considered this.
 10. Thin strips of wood applied to the outside of a piece of furniture
 12. A method of joinery often used for drawers.
 17. Company best known for its Jasperware.
 18. This glassmaker is named for the town in Ohio where it manufactured glass from 1887 - 1891.

19. The mark for this glassmaker is an H inside a diamond.
 21. Pottery that is pale orange to reddish brown in color, which is sometimes but not always glazed. (2 words)
 22. A form of folk art usually made from chip-carved cigar boxes. (2 words)
 23. This small dish with a handle shares its name with a British term for diaper.
 24. A type of chair with curved runners on the bottom.
 25. Round toys made of glass or clay.
Down
 1. Glass enamel applied to a metal base.
 4. Collectibles having to do with the armed services.
 5. A glassmaker known for pieces decorated with hobnails.

7. This pottery started in 1872 in Fultonham, Ohio, and moved to Zanesville, Ohio in 1882.
 9. The trademark name for a plastic developed in 1868 by John Hyatt.
 11. Inexpensive glass manufactured in large quantities in the 1920's and early 1930's.
 13. A cabinet with punched tin or wire doors for the cooling of baked goods. (2 words)
 14. Grandfather, mantle and wall are just three of many styles of this.
 15. This type of ceramic is translucent and feels cold to the touch.
 16. Goofy, Mickey Mouse and Dumbo are examples of this collectible.
 20. Almost transparent yellow-red glass.