Name: _____ Date: _____

Ap Lang Missed Rhetorical Terms

Across

4. the name of one object is subsitute for one that is closely associated

5. a general truth

10. telling a story or account

12. character used symbolically to represent an abstract quality

13. arranged clearly and understandably

15. contrasting of opposing ideas in adjacent phrases or sentences

16. good speech

18. word or phrase that links different ideas

19. similarity or comparison between two things

20. deductive reasoning

21. a statement or phrase that has contradictory ideas but lends some truth

22. repetition at the beginning of lines for effect

Down

1. grammatical unit containing both noun and verb

2. term describes tradtions for each genre

3. ironic minimizing of a fact, making something less significant than it really is

6. ommiting conjunctions between words or phrases

7. having the primary aim of teaching

8. a point in which it is affirmed by negating the opposite; special form of understatement

9. the sentence that directly expresses the author's opinion, purpose, meaning, and postion.

11. central idea or message of the work

14. parallel structure in reverse order

17. one or more questions are asked and answered by the same speaker