

Anatomy and Physiology Chapter 1 Vocab Pt. 2

Across

2. Means upper or above another.
3. Means lower or below another.
4. Body standing erect, face forward, arms at side, and palms forward.
7. Means back or in back off, also known as posterior.
8. Means front or in front of, also known as anterior.
10. Study of the nervous system.
14. Cavity that contains brain and spinal cord.

15. Cavity that contains stomach, liver, gallbladder, pancreas, spleen, small intestine, appendix, and part of the large intestine.

18. Cavity that contains eyes, eyeball muscles, optic nerves, and tear ducts.

19. Cavity that includes abdominal and pelvic cavities.

20. Study of the endocrine or hormonal system.

Down

1. Spinal cord is located in this cavity.

5. Cavity that contains the parts that form the nose.

6. Study of the integumentary system, involves hair, skin, and nails.

9. Cavity that includes bladder, reproductive organs, rectum, part of large intestine, and appendix.

11. Brain is located in this cavity.

12. Cavity that encloses teeth and tongue, also known as buccal cavity.

13. Implies on or near the surface of the body, also known as external.

16. Directional term used to describe damage to an organ within the body, also known as internal.

17. Cavity that lies between lungs and extends from the sternum to the vertebrae of the back.