

Name: _____

Date: _____

statistics vocab

Across

4. difference between population result and true population
 5. level of measurement
 7. groups of subjects that are similar
 11. situation occurs when effects of 2 or more variables can not be distinguished from each other
 15. measured characteristic of a sample
 16. data you find and observe
 18. repetition of an experiment
 19. samples are drawn from groups
 22. characterizes data by names and labels
 23. collection of data from every element of a population
 24. data that can be arranged in order like a fraction

25. data where the number of possibilities is finite

27. subset of a population

28. observations made by counting

29. characterizes data may be arranged in order

30. data is readily available

Down

1. methods for planning experiments, obtaining data, summarizing, etc.

2. infinitely many possible values

3. observation using senses

6. data is observed from one point of time

8. randomly selecting subjects in a population

9. entire collection of elements to be studied

10. untreated subject believes they are under treatment

12. every (x) element is selected

13. numbers or information describing some characteristic

14. sample of particular size

17. data is collected from the past

20. measured characteristics

21. subject and person giving subject treatment are under a placebo

26. experiments undergo a placebo