Name:	Date:

statistics vocab

Across

- 4. difference between population result and true population
- 5. level of measurement
- 7. groups of subjects that are similar
- 11. situation occurs when effects of 2 or more variables can not be distinguished from each other
- 15. measured characteristic of a sample
- 16. data you find and observe
- 18. repetition of an expiriment
- 19. samples are drawn from groups
- 22. characterizes data by names and labels
- 23. collection of data from every element of a population
- 24. data that can be arranged in order like a fraction

- 25. data where the number of possibilities is finite
- 27. subset of a population
- 28. observations made by counting
- 29. characterizes data may be arranged in order
- 30. data is readily available
- 1. methods for planning experiments, obtaining data, summerizing, etc.
- 2. infinatley many possible values
- 3. observation using senses
- 6. data is observed from one point of time
- 8. randomly selecting subjects in a population
- 9. entire collection of elements to be studied

- 10. untreated subject believes they are under treatment
- 12. every (x) element is selected
- 13. numbers or information describing some characteristic
- 14. sample of particular size
- 17. data is collected from the past
- 20. measured characteristics
- 21. subject and person giving subject treatment are under a placebo
- 26. experiments undergo a placebo