

Name: _____

Date: _____

Business Law 1.03 (Jarele Toliver)

Across

- 3. unlawful striking of someone
- 4. less serious crime punishable by a fine
- 8. wrongful taking of property from someone
- 12. willful damage of something
- 13. willingly set fire to an establishment
- 14. means that the act was intentional
- 16. forcing sexual intercourse with one whom is not willing
- 18. crime punishable by confinement
- 19. killing with malice

- 21. intentional killing of another
- 22. willful, deliberate, and planned killing
- 23. one's assigned task
- 24. take and make away with money
- 25. noncriminal violation usually resolved with a warning

Down

- 1. false statement that ruins someone's name
- 2. falsifying a signature
- 5. theft of property no more than $1000
- 6. reckless killing of someone

- 7. violation of conduct
- 9. illegally obtained money is put into a business
- 10. act that's a punishable offense by society
- 11. an attempt to commit battery
- 15. using deception to obtain an incentive
- 17. breaking an entering a building to steal
- 20. unlawful removal of someone against their will