

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Dramatic Elements

Across

- 3. tells of the downfall of a tragic hero
- 8. the place and time of events
- 9. an introduction or preface especially a poem recited to introduce the play
- 10. character briefly talks to himself or another characters so others cannot hear
- 11. part of play delivered by dramatic elements
- 12. a long speech by one character to another

Down

- 1. an instruction in the script to indicate actions
- 2. a humorous character or incident in a serious literary work, especially a tragedy, to relieve tension
- 4. someone of noble birth or great fame whose tragic flaw causes him/her to have a downfall and learn from the consequences
- 5. a flaw in the tragic hero of a tragedy that brings the hero to ruin or sorrow

- 6. a part of an act delivered by change of setting or character
- 7. a character is talking to him/herself on stage, allowing the audience access to his/her thoughts