

Maps and Globes

Across

2. Where a specific place on Earth can be found.
 5. An imaginary line that circles the Earth from pole to pole. It divides the Earth into the Eastern and Western Hemispheres.
 7. Half of a sphere.
 11. The geographic point on Earth that is the farthest south.
 12. The geographic point on Earth which is the farthest north.
 13. The half of Earth that is located west of the prime meridian.

14. The half of Earth that is located south of the equator.

15. The half of Earth that is located north of the equator.

Down

1. Imaginary lines on a map or globe that run from north to south. These lines can tell you how far east or west a place is located from the prime meridian.
 3. Imaginary lines on a map or globe that run from east to west. These lines can tell you how far north or south a place is located from the equator.

4. The half of Earth that is located east of the prime meridian.

6. A drawing of a place that contains information about the features of the area.

8. An imaginary line that circles the Earth halfway between the North and South Poles. It divides the Earth into the Northern and Southern Hemispheres.

9. A solid figure that has the shape of a ball.

10. A 3-D model of the Earth.