

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cyber Security Puzzle

Across

3. Process of finding a solution by trying many possible answers.
 4. Personal identifier that should be unique to you.
 7. Phishing for the big prize!
 8. Numerical label assigned to a machine.
 12. Potentially malicious email designed to trick you.
 16. Process of protecting data by secret code.
 17. Human characteristics used for identification.
 21. A bridge between networks.
 22. Free software that arrives when doing online shopping.
 25. Device connected to a network.
 26. Criminal activity used to direct you to fake websites.
 28. The potential for losing valuable information.
 29. Group of users denied entry to a system.
 31. A major event which causes systems to be unavailable.
 35. An attempt to manipulate undisclosed vulnerabilities in a system.
 37. Software used to create system havoc.
 40. When a criminal uses text messages to trick you.
 41. A malicious program used to gain information without your knowledge.

43. A tool used to steal your digital currency.

45. Stolen information, now public.

46. Blocks unwanted traffic from accessing a network.

47. Unauthorized user with malicious intent.

48. An small computer defect.

Down

1. Used by criminals to record your computer activities.

2. Deception tool used to detect an attack.

5. A type of digital currency.

6. Process where a legitimate user is verified for system access.

9. Vast underbelly of the internet.

10. Remote controlled and compromised machine.

11. A group of trusted users.

13. Device used to identify a human person entering data.

14. Process of identifying vulnerabilities in a system.

15. A program which hides functions that are potentially malicious.

18. Takes advantage of a weakness.

19. Condition achieved by taking protective measures.

20. A Wi-Fi connection set up to trick you.

23. A group of computer zombies.

24. To pose or pretend to be another person in email.

27. A self-replicating malicious program.

30. Usually a criminal adversary.

32. A sickness in your system.

33. Place to test potentially malicious software.

34. Deceitful way of creating internet revenue.

36. A criminal tool used for extortion.

38. Flooding the internet with many messages.

39. In plain view.

42. When a hacker uses the phone to trick you.

44. A routine fix for a computer program.

Word Bank

Virus	Bitcoin	Firewall	Keylogger	Honeypot	Hacker	Clickfraud	Biometrics
Gateway	Ransomware	Whaling	Security	Disruption	Risk	Darkweb	ZeroDay
Zombie	Attacker	Botnet	Malware	Encryption	BruteForce	Host	Vishing
PenTesting	EvilTwin	Cleartext	Captcha	Phish	Cryptominer	Blacklist	Spoof
Sandbox	Whitelist	Bug	Worm	Smishing	DataBreach	Adware	IPAddress
Spyware	Pharming	Authenticate	Patch	Password	Trojanhorse	Spam	Exploit