

Name: _____

Elements and Principles of Art

Across

2. Means differences in an art work.

5. The type of balance where things are balanced with differences on two sides.

10. Is the repetition of specific visual elements.

11. Can be positive or negative, and creates a realistic feel when used in drawings.

14. Size relationship among parts of a drawing, usually in portraits.

15. 3-D elements which can be geometric or organic.

Down

1. Means lights and darks in a drawing, or using shading.

3. 2-D elements which can be geometric or organic.

4. The type of balance where things are equal on either side.

6. Uses design for a sense of importance to certain elements.

7. The type of balance where things are balance around a circle, radiating out from the center.

8. Appears in art when art contains a pattern similar to the sound of music.

9. Means that part of the art seems to feel a certain way if we touched it.

12. Can be warm or cool, bright or dull.

13. When all the elements in an artwork look good together.