

Name: _____

Date: _____

US Economics

Across

2. A socialist or communist economy in which the government controls the goods and distribution of goods
 6. A situation in which any one seller controls production and supply or pricing of a product
 12. Based on the one party rule.
 13. An official ban on trade or other commercial activity with a certain country
 15. Income paid by the government to people who need the money to live
 16. The capital raised by a business through subscription of a piece of a corporation bought by the consumer
 17. A series of economic expansion and contractions.
 19. Where stocks and bonds are traded
 20. The use of government spending to encourage economic activity through increasing the demand for goods

22. The government owns and controls capital and also sets prices.

23. The belief by the of a society that something is proper and has the consent of the governed

24. A work stoppage by employees in order to gain better benefits

25. The level of wealth, comfort and material goods

Down

1. A deep and long lasting contradiction; creates unemployment

3. The amount of money that employers may legally pay their employees

4. Government policies designed to stimulate the production of goods.

5. The market value of all the goods and services produced in a nation within a specific time period.

7. The private ownership of the means of production, free markets, and the right of individuals to make most economic decisions

8. The number of people who are out of work possibly due to a depression

9. The money owed by a national government

10. A measure of the change in cost of the goods and services most commonly bought by consumers

11. The relationship between the output of goods and services and the input of resources

14. A policy where the government cannot not interfere in business matters

18. The government has no control of natural resources and capital goods

21. Human made items that are used to produce goods