

Name: _____

Date: _____

Political Policies Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. a group of persons who seek to control government through the winning of elections and the holding of public office
 5. parties based on a particular set of beliefs, a comprehensive view of social, economic, and political matters
 9. supported by two parties
 10. the current officeholder
 13. in an election, the number of votes that the leading candidate obtains over the next highest candidate
 15. parties that concentrate on only one public policy matter
 16. a political system dominated by two major parties
 19. a political system in which only one party exists

20. a society which consists of several distinct cultures and groups

Down

1. government action based on firm allegiance to a political party
 2. electoral district from which one person is chosen by the voters for each elected office
 3. parties rooted in poor economic times, lacking a clear ideological base, dissatisfied with current conditions and demanding better times
 6. parties that have split away from one of the major parties
 7. in American politics, the party that controls the executive branch of government—i.e., the presidency at the national level, or the governorship at the State level

8. one of the political parties not widely supported

11. a temporary alliance of several groups who come together to form a working majority and so to control a government
 12. a system in which several major and many lesser parties exist, seriously compete for, and actually win, public offices
 14. all of the people entitled to vote in a given election
 17. in American politics, the Republican and the Democratic parties
 18. general agreement among various groups on fundamental matters; broad agreement on public questions