

Name: _____ Date: _____

Medication Administration

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1. amount of drug administered, usually measured in milligrams | A. night |
| 2. factors that prevent the use of a drug or treatment | B. drug placed under the tongue |
| 3. Drugs are to be prescribed in 'what' name? | C. Antagonist |
| 4. IM means? | D. Afferent |
| 5. NG means? | E. Agonist |
| 6. PRN means? | F. immediately |
| 7. Nocte means? | G. Four times a day |
| 8. State means? | H. Dose |
| 9. They are sensory neurones and travel back towards the CNS | I. Nasogastric |
| 10. They are motor neurons that travel outwards from the CNS | J. as required |
| 11. What blocks target receptor sites? | K. Contraindication |
| 12. What stimulates their target receptor sites? | L. Efferent |
| 13. Route by which a drug is administered into the ear | M. Aural |
| 14. The administration route for a drug injected just beneath the top layer of skin is called: | N. Intramuscular |
| 15. IV stands for: | O. Mane |
| 16. Medication that comes in a glass container with a narrow neck is called a: | P. Intravenous |
| 17. An unexpected effect of a drug is know as: | Q. Adverse Effect |
| 18. Sublingual administration means: | R. subcutaneous |
| 19. QID stands for? | S. Generic |
| 20. A durg to be given in the morning would be prescribed as what? | T. Ampoule |