

Name: _____ Date: _____

Firearm and Tool Marks

Across

3. A(n) _____ is any impression caused by a tool coming into contact with another object.
5. A _____ photograph may help visualize gun powder deposits around a target
6. The most important instrument for comparing bullets is _____.
9. The _____ is the original part of the bore left after rifling grooves are formed.
10. The _____ characteristics of a rifled barrel are formed by striations impressed into the barrel's surface.

Word Bank

Gunpowder residue
Smooth
ToolMark
Comparison microscope

Photography casting
Caliber
Infrared

Land
Individual
Primer

Down

1. The clothing of the victim of a shooting must be handled so as to prevent disruption of _____ around bullet holes.
2. Shoe and tire marks impressed in soft earth at a crime scene are best preserved by _____ and _____.
4. Current methods for identifying a shooter rely on the detection of _____ residues on the hands.
7. A shotgun has an _____ barrel.
8. The diameter of the gun barrel is known as its _____.