

Chapter 14 Maintaining Financial Information

Across

7. differences between actual and budgeted performance
8. detailed plans for the financial needs of a business
11. funds are deposited electronically and available automatically for your use
12. a financial document that contains information on all employees of the company, their compensation, and benefits
14. an estimate of the actual money received and paid out for a specific period of time

15. describes the financial plan for ongoing operations of the business for a specific period of time

16. what a company owns; anything of value owned by a business

17. all income that a business receives over a period of time

Down

1. the value of the business after liabilities are subtracted from assets; the value of the owner's investment in the business

2. what a company owes

3. comparisons of a company's financial elements that indicate how the business is performing

4. costs of operating a business

5. a report that lists a company's assets, liabilities, and owner's equity

6. financial documents that are used to record and analyze the financial performance of a business

9. a report of revenue, expenses, and net income or loss from operations for a specific period

10. plans income and expenses from the beginning of a new business or a major business expansion until it becomes profitable

13. the financial record of employee compensation, deductions, and net pay