

Name: _____

Date: _____

Adolescence

Across

2. transitional stage in development that extends mainly over the teen years
4. when genders stick to their own when interacting
7. when you believe that another person's primary focus is on you
8. when you have independence and control over your self
9. when you think you have experienced something no one else has

10. the same change that occurs over generations

11. a person addicted to drinking

Down

1. a limited group of people who interact together
3. when an adolescent and a parent have different views on the world
5. occurs at the beginning of adolescence when sexual organs mature
6. the begining of menstruation