

Canadian Government

Across

2. Political parties based on left-wing ideas tend to believe that government power should be used to create economic, political, and social _____.

5. The level of government that is responsible for all things that affect Canada is?

7. The Governor General represents?

10. The Senate or The House of Commons can introduce a _____.

11. The Upper House is also known as _____.

13. The level of government that is responsible for things that affect the individual provinces is?

15. In a legislative branch there is such a thing called _____ period.

16. The level of government that is responsible for things that affect the individual city, town or village is?

Down

1. Members of the House of Commons are called?

3. The _____ chooses Senators when vacancies become available.

4. Political parties of the centre hope to _____ the best of the left and right and avoid the extremes of both.

6. The Federal Parliament is _____.

8. Members of Parliament are _____ to the House of Commons.

9. _____ has three parts which work together to decide on policies and laws to address the issues that concern Canada.

12. Before 1900, men of 21 years of age and older and who owned property could do what?

14. Political parties based on right-wing ideas tend to _____ government involvement in the economy and society, and instead promote the individual's freedom.