Across
6. This is the first barrier against infection.
9. This drug can be used to surgically scrub hands prior to surgery.
11. The type of anesthesia administered at a dentist office.
12. Chemical that kills infectious material on surfaces.
14. Anesthesia means the loss of _____.
15. The first stage of anesthesia.
16. The second stage of anesthesia.
17. Autoclaves work by heat, pressure, and ______.
19. A normal, healthy patient presenting for surgery is considered this class of anesthetic risk. (two words)
20. This patient is considered a class two anesthetic risk.
21. This type of suture pattern is more sturdy but takes longer to apply.
22. The process of withholding food and water from a patient prior to surgery.

Down
1. This process allows direct gas and oxygen delivery to a surgical patient.
2. Proper water type to fill an autoclave.
3. Chemical that kills infectious material on skin.
4. This is an example of regional anesthesia.
5. The process of killing ALL present organisms.
7. Type of anesthesia that numbs an entire limb.
8. This procedure should not be performed in a surgical suite.
10. The breakdown of suture by water or body fluids is called ______.
13. Clipper blade size used to prepare a patient’s surgical site.
18. Type of anesthesia causes loss of both consciousness and sensation in a patient.