

Name: _____

Diseases and Disorders

Across

1. any agent that causes a disease
3. Injections that can help prevent viral infections
5. Protection from getting a disease
8. Proteins in our bodies that recognize pathogens and protect us from them
9. Diseases that can't be caught (passed from person to person)

Across

11. Poisonous substances created by plants (poison ivy), animals (rattlesnakes), or improperly prepared or stored food
12. Viruses inject their _____ for cells to reproduce and infect others
13. _____ disorders are passed down from our parent's genes
14. Illnesses caused by many factors
15. Medicines that can be used as treatment for bacterial diseases

Down

2. Diseases that can be passed (caught) from person to person
4. Soaps and cleaners that prevent the spread of germs
6. Nonliving things that attack cells and make them reproduce their illness
7. Diseases that are easily passed from person to person
10. Prokaryotic organisms that cause infections