Gynecology

1. Absence or cessation of the menstrual period D
2. examination of the cervix using a colposcope J
3. pain in the vagina or pelvis experienced by a woman during sexual intercourse B
4. the lower narrow end of the uterus that opens into the vagina L
5. pain associated with the menstrual period E
6. the growth of abnormal cells A
7. the permanent cessation of menstruation K
8. excessive bleeding during a menstrual period H
9. bleeding between menstrual periods I
10. before the onset of menopause F
11. the external region between the vaginal orifice and the anus in a female G
12. anything that increases an individual's chance of developing a disease C