

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Fossils

Across

1. to keep something as it was
6. imprint or remains of plants, or animals that once were alive and lived a very long time ago
7. gone forever, all of one kind of a plant or animal dies
9. a scientist who studies fossils
10. a fossil in which the organic remains have been replaced by minerals in the slow process of being replaced with stone

Down

2. a fossil that are the remains of the activity of an animal, such as preserved track ways, footprints, fossilized egg shells, and nests □
3. hardened tree sap, often the source of insect fossils and is usually yellow in color
4. a fossil of an organism that left an empty space in the rock the shape of the once living organism
5. a fossil made inside a mold when minerals seeped in and hardens into the shapes of the mold □
8. sticky juice from a tree