

Name: _____

Date: _____

Medication Crossword; Nurs134

Across

2. sodium; stool softener
 6. beta blocker; antihypertensive; lowers heart rate and blood pressure; Coreg
 7. inhibits production of uric acid; used to treat gout
 9. reduces size of prostate and decreases urinary symptoms of BPH
 11. anti-infective; fluoroquinolones; broad spectrum; used against gram positive (MRSA) and gram negative (E-coli) pathogens
 13. fat-soluble vitamin that promotes absorption of Ca and Phos
 16. anti-infective; binds to cell wall membrane to cause cell death against susceptible bacteria; Rocephin
 17. non-opioid analgesic given for mild to moderate pain; should be limited to 4 grams daily according to the FDA
 20. low molecular weight heparin; prevention of VTE, DVT, PE

21. given to treat high cholesterol and prevent cardiovascular disease
 22. opioid analgesic used for management of moderate to severe acute pain; binds to CNS opioid receptors to block perception of pain; Buprenex

Down

1. opioid analgesic; short half-life; often given by IV or patch; CNS depressant
 3. used to prevent acid reflux/GERD; short-term treatment of duodenal ulcers
 4. most frequently given by suppository; stimulant laxative
 5. calcium channel blocker; antihypertensive; works by systemic vasodilation to decrease blood pressure; Norvasc
 8. NSAID; low dose taken routinely is often recommended to prevent heart attack

10. antihypertensive; adrenergic; for management of mild to moderate HTN; inhibits vasoconstriction to reduce blood pressure; Catapres
 12. benzodiazepine; treats anxiety and panic disorders; Xanax
 14. opioid analgesic; often combined with guaifenesin or promethazine for cough suppressant that affects parts of the brain to reduce urge to cough
 15. long-acting insulin that stimulates peripheral glucose uptake by binding to insulin receptors; Levemir
 18. antidiabetic; promotes insulin secretion and glucose-lowering mechanisms; Byetta
 19. antibacterial; may be given for pneumonia, sinusitis, acute bronchitis, middle ear infection, urethritis, pertussis, etc.; Zithromax