Health Promotion in Families Review

Across

3. Includes equality for health and ethical care (*two words no space between)

5. This cultural approach includes the creation of or delivery of programs or provision of care which are reflective of diverse cultures and ethnic groups

10. Strengthening community action includes two key aspects; collaborative and ..... actions

11. There are.....major life stages for families

14. Clients who are likely to develop health problems as a result of excessive risks are considered...

17. There are....key determinants of health

22. ....learning domain includes intellectual behaviors

23. To maintain and improve all society's health and eliminate helath dispartites is the overall goal (*two words, no space between)

24. Lack of assumptions of risk, lack of anonymity, lack of percieved risk are considered

25. This can be altered or manipulated to promote learning

26. Aspects of emotional regulation can include this

27. Hospitals, homes, commuties and asssited living are examples of.....for provision of care

28. Comparison of actual and expected outcomes is part of what phase of the nursing process

Down

1. Identify the clients/family's main issue(s)

2. Age, sex. & family size are considered part of this

4. ....moments are vrious planned or unplanned events or circumstances which can lead individuals to positive behavior change

6. An.....a day will keep the doctor away

7. Not being able to access basic resources such as food and shelter (*two words no space between)

8. Can enhance or hinder health and health outcomes (*two words no space between)

9. The process of enabling people/communities to take control of their health (*two words no space between)

12. Minimize death, disease, & injury, keeps people safe and improves health of communities (*two words no space between)

13. Setting goals and supportive strategies is what stage of the NP

15. Disadvantaged, marginalized, and poverty are associated with....of volunerability

16. Includes diagnostics and treatments

18. Strengthening community action is considered to be one of the .....of care within PHC

19. A report developed which connects non-medical detereminants to health status

20. Facilitates a sense of control within the family/community

21. PHC....are relevant to the social, cultural, economic, and political context