

court

Across

- 2. The U.S. is the only country in the world with juries in what type of trials?
- 4. How many of the amendments are for criminal cases?
- 5. What amendment protects against cruel and unusual punishments?
- 7. What is the least serious offense called?
- 11. How many jurors are there in a criminal trial?
- 13. What is the term used for a crime that is punishable by death?
- 14. What type of officer conducts presentence investigations, prepares presentence reports on convicted defendants, and supervises released defendants?
- 16. _____ is a proceeding in which an individual who is accused of committing a crime is brought into court, told of the charges, and asked to plead guilty, not guilty, or nolo contendere (no contest)
- 17. What type of offense is it when the penalty can include up to one year in a county jail.

Down

- 1. _____ are rules that set out a uniform sentencing policy for individuals and organizations convicted of felonies and serious (Class A) misdemeanors in the United States federal courts system.
- 3. What is the highest court in the country?
- 6. What branch of government makes the laws?
- 8. Who appoints the federal judges with the advice and consent of the senate?
- 9. Does state court or federal court have jurisdiction over bankruptcy cases?
- 10. In a criminal case who can appeal a guilty verdict?
- 12. What is the term used to describe evidence presented orally by witnesses during trials or before grand juries?
- 15. What is a serious crime carrying a penalty of more than one year in prison called?