

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 3 Vocabulary Quiz

1. a scientist who studies artifacts to learn about the past

_____ F

A. longhouse

2. the time before people left written records

_____ C

B. religion

3. people in your family starting with your parents, who were born before you _____ T

C. prehistory

4. native American tribe who lived throughout New Jersey and in parts of Delaware, Pennsylvania, and New York _____ Q

D. Ice Age

5. "where the Lenape dwell" _____ M

E. artifact

6. a long, covered building in a Native American village that housed several families together _____ A

F. archaeologist

7. longest river in New Jersey _____ O

G. Abbott Farm

8. archaeological site containing prehistoric artifacts near Trenton _____ G

H. heritage

9. one of New Jersey's first archaeologists; he found stone tools on his farm in 1867 _____ N

I. oral tradition

10. a period of time when glaciers covered much of Earth's surface _____ D

J. Beringia

11. the history, beliefs, and way of life that a group of people shares _____ H

K. hunter-gatherer

12. smaller houses that had a round shape _____ P

L. sakima

13. a wise man or woman who would settle any arguments that came up _____ L

M. Lenapehoking

14. the way people worship the god or gods they believe in _____ B

N. Charles C. Abbott

15. The Lenape word for the many different forces that they believed controlled the world _____ S

O. Raritan River

16. a land bridge believed to have connected Asia with North America for about 2,000 years during the Ice Age _____ J

P. wigwams

17. body of water that separates North America from Asia

Q. Lenape

_____ R

18. a person who found food by both hunting animals and gathering plants, fruits, and nuts _____ K

R. Bering Strait

19. a way of preserving a culture by passing information along through word of mouth and stories _____ I

S. manetu

20. an object left behind by people who lived long ago

T. ancestors

_____ E