

Math Summative Crossword

Across

4. The longest side of a right angle triangle is the...

6. the coordinates of (h,k) are also called the _____

8. A relation that has a common value for the second differences is

12. the value of k on a parabola represents the _____ shift on a graph

13. what form is this?: $(x+m)(x+n)$

15. A non-symmetrical distribution of data

Down

1. If the value of a is negative the parabola opens

2. The science of learning from data is called

3. a source of data that has been collected by another source is called _____ data

5. The measure of the likelihood of an event

7. what do we use to factor a simple trinomial?

9. symmetrical U shaped curve

10. the sampling technique in which every x member of the population is selected

11. What distribution contains two equally likely measures of central tendency?

14. What do you call the difference between the greatest and least values in a set of data?