

Name: _____

Date: _____

Homophones

Across

3. toward; in the direction of.

9. I would love to _____ the president of the United States.

11. The past tense of ride

12. the flesh of an animal that can be eaten

13. a part that sticks out at the back end of an animal's body and is often long and slender

14. a story that is not true

15. to send through the air; to fling or toss.

16. a flying insect with four wings that collects pollen to make honey

17. the body of salt water that covers nearly three-fourths of the earth's surface; the ocean.

Down

1. as well; also; in addition

2. a wide path with smooth surface on which vehicles and people travel

4. in one side out the other

5. to come face to face with someone or something

6. having little strength, force or power

7. a period of seven days, usually from Sunday to Saturday

8. to use your eyes, to look at, or to notice something or someone.

10. the number 2

Word Bank

tail

two

see

road

threw

rode

too

week

bee

be

tale

weak

meet

through

meat

sea

to