

The Season of Yield

Across

7. Instead of coming to us, we go to them to them to show Marquette is the best!

10. Students can start selecting their friend preferences towards the end of February.

11. Students can now sign up to register for thier furture!

12. A great resource to help with money questions.

13. Some are labeled Blue and Gold others are not. But connecting with them are in our best interest.

15. An event to let our Hispanic and Latinx students and their families know Marquette is home.

16. Putting our best foot foward and always returning emails and calls.

17. A visit weekend like no other where we try and seal the deal.

18. Processing needs this from students so they can matriculate without a hold.

Down

1. At the end of the day we do it for them.

2. Personalized visits in february for admitted students.

3. A book of sad financial stories.

4. If students need more money or don't like their decision they can.

5. When students are ready to make Marquette Facebook, Instagram, and Snapchat official.

6. Some scholarships are but others are not.

8. The swag we give to bribe students to deposit.

9. Whether it was a good conversation or getting yelled at, we must always remember to say.

14. An educational sleepover at Marquette University.
