

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary week-15

Across

2. The break between parts of a play, opera, or concert

6. Involving people playing among themselves; and exchange of activity or information between people or people and a computer

7. The worldwide computer system that allows communication and information sharing among people

8. A person who helps translate the language is between different people

9. To throw a remark into a conversation between two or more people

10. Between people (usually describing social activities)

Down

1. Between or among the nations of the world

3. To get in between two people when it is not your problem or issue

4. Between the states

5. To break into a conversation between people

Word Bank

Intermission

Interactive

Interrupt

Interfere

Interpersonal

Interstate

Internet

Interject

Interpreter

International