Privacy and Security Week 2020

Across

6. Free does not mean free from harm
8. Deploy contrary to specified purpose
11. Continued possession of data
12. Move data from place to another
19. Maple flavored privacy law
20. Big social engineering target
23. Result of failed entries
25. DOB: 25 May 2018
28. Data of value to the AAMC
29. Appropriate use of personal information under the circumstances
32. Data on a break
33. ___ Information Privacy Principles
35. Hot fix
36. Remove data when no longer needed
40. Inspect gadgets?
41. AAMC's most protective data classification
44. In open view
47. AAMC team responsible for responding to data breaches
49. Form one from many
51. AAMC data classification for "Internal Use Only"
52. Western limit on purchaser data (Abbr.)
53. Needing a "need to know"

Down

1. Safe harbor for lost data
2. Make known
3. Reduce or eliminate
4. Gain entry
5. Top cause of data breaches
7. Give permission
9. Data tender
10. Not "12345678"
13. What AAMC must keep along with the data it collects
14. Data giver
15. One basis for access rights
16. Network traffic control
17. Body identifier
18. How incidents are classified
21. Drawer containing sensitive data, ideally
22. Conveyer of lost passwords
24. Request from Nigerian prince?
26. A health beast, not a water beast (Abbr.)
27. Computer related
30. Script runner
31. Individual with privacy rights
34. Datums corrected
37. Name under another name
38. Fraud by phone
39. Infectious malware
42. Protected
43. Reportable loss
45. Record of activity
46. Cause of something unexpected
48. School data law (Abbr.)
50. Form by instruction