

Skin Care State Board

Across

1. The outermost protective layer of the skin containing many small nerve endings, but no blood vessels
4. _____ is a large blister containing clear, watery fluid
5. In a/an _____ current, the flow of electricity reverses direction
14. A chronic inflammation of sebaceous glands
15. The basic unit of all living matter
16. An _____ is an agent that prevents or reduces infection by eliminating or decreasing the growth of microorganisms

17. Also known as blackheads, these hair follicles contain hardened and darkened sebum

19. A congenital disorder characterized by the complete or partial absence of pigment in the skin, hair and eyes
20. The subcutaneous tissue is _____ tissue found beneath the dermis

Down

2. _____ is the mildest type of skin cancer
3. The aorta is the largest _____ of the body
6. One of the six functions of the skin that aids in its ability to stretch and return

7. Dermatitis Venenata is an allergic reaction caused by exposure to certain

8. _____ nourishes and supplies oxygen to the body

9. A type of disinfectant that kills bacteria

10. _____ is a lack of perspiration due to an underactive sudoriferous gland

11. The middle portion of a muscle

12. The top chambers of the heart
13. In the visible spectrum of light, _____ of visible light rays account for the natural sunlight

18. The final stage of the Human Immunodeficiency Virus

Word Bank

Albinism	Cell	Antiseptic	Products	Belly
Atrium	AIDS	Acne	Absorption	Comedo
Basal cell carcinoma	Bactericidal	Blood	Artery	Bulla
Alternating	Anhidrosis	Fatty	35%	Epidermis