

WEEK ONE

Across

- 2. A democratic and republic government where the head of gov leads the executive branch
- 4. Has a strong central power and limited political freedoms
- 10. The people have the power and can voice their opinion on gov. matter
- 11. A group of people that govern a community
- 12. People decide on policy in initiatives directly

- 13. Power lies in the local government
- 15. The country is considered a "public matter" and not private
- 16. A view of the persons' morals or political obligations

Down

- 1. Central and Local have to share powers
- 3. Type of democracy founded on the principle of elected officials
- 5. Government by select few

- 6. Controlling body whose power exists only within pre-defined limits
- 7. A system of government in which one person holds unlimited powers; dictatorship
- 8. The central government has all the power
- 9. The prime minister in the gov. system is chosen by legislature
- 14. The authority and influence of law in society

Word Bank

- Rule of law
- Government
- Oligarchy
- Democratic Government
- Authoritarianism Government
- Representative Democracy

- Presidential System
- Direct Democracy
- Federal Government
- Parliamentary
- Confederate

- Social Contract Theory
- Autocracy
- Republic
- Unitary Government
- Limited Government