

WEEK ONE

Across

- 2. A democratic and republic government where the head of gov leads the executive branch
4. Has a strong central power and limited political freedoms
10. The people have the power and can voice their opinion on gov. matter
11. A group of people that govern a community
12. People decide on policy in initiatives directly

Word Bank

Presidential System
 Rule of law
 Republic
 Autocracy
 Government
 Parliamentary

- 13. Power lies in the local government

- 15. The country is considered a "public matter" and not private 16. A view of the persons' morals or political obligations

Down

- 1. Central and Local have to share powers
3. Type of democracy founded on the principle of elected officials
5. Government by select few

- 6. Controlling body whose power exists only within pre-defined limits

- 7. A system of government in which one person holds unlimited powers; dictatorship
8. The central government has all the power
9. The prime minister in the gov. system is chosen by legislature
14. The authority and influence of law in society

Unitary Government
 Federal Government
 Representative Democracy
 Democratic Government
 Direct Democracy

Authoritarianism Government
 Social Contract Theory
 Confederate
 Limited Government
 Oligarchy