

Chapter 7 Crossword #2

Across

5. An association of merchants or artisans who cooperated to uphold standards of their trade and to protect their economic interests.
 6. A rule that divides the day into periods of worship, work, and study.
 7. The practice of lending money at interest.
 10. A sacred ritual the Roman Catholic Church preforms.
 11. Prejudice against Jews.
 15. Charter that strictly limited royal power in Hungary.
 16. Body of laws of a church.
 17. A divide or split.
 20. The first Franciscan friars were his followers, and together they lived a life of service to the poor and sick.

21. A group of merchants who joined together to finance a large-scale venture that would have been too costly for any individual trader.

23. Exclusion from the Roman Catholic Church as a penalty for refusing to obey Church law.

24. A claim where medieval popes had authority over every secular ruler.

Down

1. The official split between the Roman Catholic and Byzantine churches that occurred in 1054.

2. A medieval European monk who traveled from place to place preaching to the poor.

3. A group of people, including merchants, traders, and artisans.

4. A lord's estate that included one or more villages and the surrounding lands

8. Excommunication of an entire town, region, or kingdom in the Roman Catholic Church.

9. Assembly or legislature.

12. Holy image of Christ, the Virgin Mary, of a saint venerated in the Eastern Orthodox Church.

13. A handwritten document that had the rights and privileges of a town.

14. Someone who would pay rent to a lord to farm part of the lord's land.

18. A peasant that is bound to the lord's land.

19. Money or wealth used to invest in business or enterprise.

22. Having to do with worldly and nonreligious matters.

Word Bank

Anti-Semitism

Guild

Great schism

Papal supremacy

Diet

Middle class

Sacrament

Friar

Interdict

Golden Bull of 1222

Serf

Schism

Benedictine rule

Excommunication

Capital

Manor

Usury

Charter

Icon

Tenant farmer

Canon law

Secular

St. Francis of Assisi

Partnership