

The Life as an Artist

Across

3. This is a type of paint that artists use (colors dry at the same rate)
5. This is another word that describes a graphic designer
6. This is what all artists do before they start working and to help with their ideas
7. This type of paint requires a lot of water for the paint to be used effectively
11. This person writes stories and stage plays
12. The most common material that is drawn and written on
13. The most common and well-known type of art
14. This is a program that writers use to write their stories
15. This is a tool that all artists use to sketch out drawings or to write down ideas
19. This is what writers put their stories in
20. A permanent marker
22. A liquid that is often inside of pens
27. This is where actors perform
28. This type of paint that I used by painters (the different colors dry at different rates)
29. A way to give drawings more depth and realism
31. A type of art form that is flashy (mostly used by women)
33. These fill in the background of a play and what actors use in scenes

38. This person helps to show others how to unlock their inner artist

40. This is a type of art that can not be seen but everyone likes it
41. This person works with all kinds of paint, brushes, and canvases
43. This is a type of art that all people like and use every day
45. This type of art brings people together to sit down and share a moment together
46. This is a type of artist that makes 3-D works of art (stop motion)
47. A tool used to add paint to a canvas
48. A type of material that sculptors use to make their art
49. These are writers that work with pictures and have several scenes on one page

Down

1. A piece of technology that writers and graphic designers use to work on
2. These types of artists who draw or create pictures (often work in kids' books)
4. This is what all artists do in their life
8. One of the most popular color pencil brands
9. These type of artists make pictures come to life (often for children shows)
10. This person is known as a visual communicator (designs posters, advertisements, etc..)

16. This is what all writers and graphic designers need before they turn in their final work

17. A fancy crayon
18. A way to give someone a physical copy of your work that is on a computer
21. This is applied to people's faces
23. A common trait that describes all artists
24. This is what a play takes place on
25. A thick or liquid substance that artists use to add color and images to a canvas
26. This is a type of material used by sculptors
30. A rough sketch of a drawing and a way to show your ideas in the beginning
32. This type of art form uses heat to make designs in pieces of wood
34. A way to help you to improve your work
35. This is a program used by graphic designers
36. This is the other type of pastel that is soft and blends well
37. This is a permanent writing tool that uses ink
39. This is a permanent art form that people get (often on their arms and/or legs)
42. This is another name for a book that actors read out of to learn their lines
44. This is what most painters paint on