

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

V.I.C #2

Across

3. Disgusting, Loathsome; objectable; incompatible.

6. A lessening.

8. Condition of being namless and unknown.

9. Hostility, active opposition.

10. Keenly perceptive shrewd.

13. Mrs. Smith was upset at James _____ style of writing for his formal essay.

14. Using only a few words but clear to the point; polished.

15. My Uncle read the _____ at my Aunt's funeral.

Down

1. Use of an indirect expression in place of one that is harsh

2. The jury was _____ until a verdict was reached.

4. The prodigy was a _____ at playing chess.

5. That which cannot be maintained or occupied; incapable of being defended or held.

7. Chandler decided to serve soup at homeless shelter for _____ people.

11. Math teachers wants us to _____ so we can solve the math problems

12. Outwardly calm or composed; self satisfied peaceful.