

Name: _____ Date: _____

Foundations for the Study of History

- |   |                       |
|---|-----------------------|
| 1. In the year of our Lord / before Christ  | A. Sovereign          |
| 2. False philosophy of origins based on chance and progressively advanced over eons of time                           | B. Deluge             |
| 3. An institution that has both authority and power to control, direct, and rule in the actions and affairs of others | C. A.D./B.C.          |
| 4. Having supreme power   | D. Babel              |
| 5. The Flood  | E. Plain of Shinar    |
| 6. Death Penalty  | F. Humanism           |
| 7. After the Flood  | G. Nation             |
| 8. Lower Mesopotamia  | H. features           |
| 9. City Later known as Babylon, built by Nimrod   | I. Evolution          |
| 10. The worship of man  | J. Indo-European      |
| 11. A large group of people who think of themselves as one and act in history as a single entity                      | K. Capital Punishment |
| 12. Race Several large groups into which mankind is divided, each differing in skin color and other physical          | L. Postdiluvian       |
| 13. Common language of the Japhetic peoples, which diverged into about 50 modern tongues                              | M. Government         |