

Name: _____ Date: _____

Foundations for the Study of History

- | | |
|---|-----------------------|
| 1. In the year of our Lord / before Christ C | A. Sovereign |
| 2. False philosophy of origins based on chance and progressively advanced over eons of time I | B. Deluge |
| 3. An institution that has both authority and power to control, direct, and rule in the actions and affairs of others M | C. A.D./B.C. |
| 4. Having supreme power A | D. Babel |
| 5. The Flood B | E. Plain of Shinar |
| 6. Death Penalty K | F. Humanism |
| 7. After the Flood L | G. Nation |
| 8. Lower Mesopotamia E | H. features |
| 9. City Later known as Babylon, built by Nimrod D | I. Evolution |
| 10. The worship of man F | J. Indo-European |
| 11. A large group of people who think of themselves as one and act in history as a single entity G | K. Capital Punishment |
| 12. Race Several large groups into which mankind is divided, each differing in skin color and other physical H | L. Postdiluvian |
| 13. Common language of the Japhetic peoples, which diverged into about 50 modern tongues J | M. Government |