

Date: _____ Period: _____

Chapter 10.3 Sedimentary Rocks Crossword

Across

3. A type of limestone made up from the shells of tiny, one-celled marine organisms.

7. "Formed from the remains of living things."

9. The major component of sandstone.

10. One group of these rocks consists of gravel-sized fragments that are cemented together by minerals.

11. Rocks that are not made up of rock fragments but are chemical in origin.

12. Made up of sand-sized grains that have been cemented together.

Down

1. Lumps of rock with a composition different from that of the main rock body.

2. These rocks form minerals that were once dissolved in water.

4. The remains or traces of ancient plants and animals.

5. Forms from decayed plant remains that are buried and compacted into matter that is mostly carbon.

6. Formed by the action of wind or water on sand.

8. Result when muddy deposits dry and shrink.