Chapter 4 Review

Across

2. Coverage B applies to (also called contents) owned by the insured or by members of the insured's family while it is at the described location.

6. The Broad Form (DP-2), analogous to the TDI Form

9. Coverage D

10. The Basic Form (DP-1), analogous to the TDI ______ Form
11. Personal property is covered against the ______ perils named in the TDP-22.

12. Coverage for vandalism is excluded after a dwelling is vacant for ______days

14. _____% of the Coverage B limit may be applied to personal property of a guest or servant while the property is on the premises.
16. Coverage E

Down

1. The Special Form (DP-3), analogous to the TDI ______ 3. The ISO forms DP-2 and DP-3, like the TDI forms TDI-2 and TDI-3, extend a limited amount of coverage for trees, with a maximum amount of 5% of the Coverage A limit. ISO differs from TDI in that the forms allow up to $______ per tree. 4. The ISO forms coverage for watercraft under Coverage C applies only to ______ and ______ (including kayaks) stored at the insured location.5. 5. Coverage A _____

7. Coverage B

8. Coverage C

13. Loss of use coverage will pay up to _____% of the Coverage A limit.

15. TDP-3 or Special Form, covers the dwelling on an ______perils basis