

Name: _____

Date: _____

Happiness

Across

- 3. a state of well-being and contentment, a pleasurable or satisfying experience
- 4. The expected elements in a type of film, without question, thought, or judgment
- 7. Goes after readily attainable pleasures, especially those provided by the humanities - art, music, theater, literature
- 10. The process, art, or business of making movies
- 11. A motion picture theater.
- 12. A type of movie that uses the free play of the imagination.

- 13. A type of relief that is humorous or farcical interlude in a dramatic film.
- 14. A film that wistfully looks back at an earlier past time, often depicting it as more innocent and uncomplicated than it actually was
- 16. The lead or main character in a film.
- 17. An action error or mistake, usually embarrassing or humorous, made by a performer during filming
- 18. Type of comedy that has a love theme that ends in a happy conclusion.

Down

- 1. Hormones in the body that help us that block pain and are responsible for our feelings of pleasure.

- 2. Usually a comedic film that pays tribute to an earlier film in a humorous way.
- 5. Background _____ accompanies a scene or action in a film, usually to establish a specific mood or enhance the emotion.
- 6. The highest point of a film.
- 8. Feeling that contributes a dimensional tone to a film's action
- 9. Type of memory that can make you happy or sad when it is depicted in a movie.
- 15. Adam _____ is an actor/producer who has starred in many comedies and many of those comedies he wrote himself.