

APHuG Vocab Puzzle-Tom Smith

Across

2. an attitude that divides people and splits countries (Soviet Union)
 3. a state that has split regions that are disconnected from each other (Indonesia)
 5. a state with multiple nations inside of it's borders (Russia)
 8. an attitude that unifies people and supports the state (Hinduism in India)
 10. ability for a state to govern itself (United States)
 13. a state where the distance from all borders to center is roughly equal (Poland)
 15. a boundary drawn along physical and natural borders, including rivers, oceans, mountains, etc. (Pyrenees along France and Spain border)

16. a portion of a state cut off from main part, similar to a territory (Alaska)
 18. a state that has a long and narrow shape (Chile)
 20. redrawing of voting districts to benefit a certain candidate (District 3 in Tennessee)

Down

1. a nation of similar people spread out across different states (Kurds)
 4. a very small area that is considered a state, made up of inner city and townspeople plus all the farmland surrounding it, very common in Ancient Europe (Athens in ancient Greece)
 6. a state that has no access to the ocean (Switzerland)
 7. a boundary drawn mathematically along a straight line (Canada and USA border)

9. economic union of European countries that allows more trade and movement across borders in Europe (Italy, Spain, France, etc.)

11. a territory or country that is politically controlled by a foreign country (Puerto Rico)
 12. a state with a united group of people that share common ethnicity, religion, and language (Japan)
 14. an area with political boundaries and a government (France)
 17. a group of people that share common ethnicity, religion, language, etc. (Kurds)
 19. a state completely surrounded by another state or territory (Lesotho inside South Africa)